

ATAS ANGIN

MALAYSIAN INDIE ON THE RISE

Experience the thrill of open-air rooftops pulsing with the energy of Malaysia's unsigned talent. Atas Angin turns city heights into vibrant stages where music, crowds, and skyline views come together.

From punk mosh pits and ska explosions to dreamy indie anthems, every edition brings something different. The sound is loud, raw, and full of personality.

Each performance helps push local music to new heights while giving emerging artists a chance to shine. Under the city lights, every set feels more alive and memorable.

Atas Angin is more than a festival atmosphere. It is a space where music, community, and creativity meet in one unforgettable rooftop experience.

ABOUT ATAS ANGIN

Founded in Malaysia, Atas Angin is a music-focused event management company dedicated to creating impactful, innovative, and engaging experiences across the country. We bring together music, culture, and atmosphere to produce events that leave a lasting impression and reflect the energy of the communities we serve.

As a diverse management and business solutions company, Atas Angin creates events and creative platforms that clients value and audiences remember. Through thoughtful planning, strong execution, and a commitment to quality, we aim to deliver experiences that feel polished, meaningful, and memorable from beginning to end.

Our goal is to become the go-to platform for connecting independent artists and musicians throughout Asia. We want to build spaces where talent can be discovered, collaboration can grow, and creative communities can thrive across borders and generations.

Atas Angin is more than an event company – it is a growing creative movement shaped by passion, collaboration, and a love for live music. Every project reflects our belief in the power of live experiences to inspire, connect, and bring people together.

WHAT DO WE DO?

Atas Angin creates live experiences that connect music, people, and places in ways that feel natural, engaging, and unforgettable. From intimate showcases to large-scale festivals, we build events that feel seamless and meaningful from start to finish, with every detail working together to shape the overall experience.

Our work brings together creative planning, strong execution, and a deep understanding of how to make audiences feel connected to the moment. We aim to create events that do more than entertain – they build atmosphere, generate energy, and leave a lasting impression long after the final performance ends.

We help turn ideas into fully realised events that reflect your vision and give each project its own identity. Whether the goal is to launch a project, celebrate an artist, or build a community experience, Atas Angin is here to make it happen with purpose, style, and impact.

SERVICES / OFFERING

Atas Angin offers a wide range of event services tailored to different needs and event formats. Our core offerings include festivals and gigs, road tours, media events, album launches, bazaar and food festivals, as well as collaboration and event support services.

We handle the details so you can focus on the experience. From venue booking, stage construction, permits, and event flow management to manpower recruitment, media coordination, and post-event cleanup, our team provides end-to-end support designed to bring every event to life.
